JERSEY CITY.

GERMAN SOCIETY PEOPLE AT A WED.

BOCIAL FEATURES OF THE WEEK-NOTES OF INTEREST.

Miss Clara Dohrmann, daughter of Alderman Dohrmann, of Jersey City, and N. William Maertens were married at the home of the bride's parents, No. & Palisade-ave., on Tuesday evening.
The Rev. R. Luehrs officiated. Albert Maertens,
Jr., was the best man, and Miss Ida Schumann was Jr., was the best man, and Miss Ida Schumann was Jr., was the best man, and Miss Ida Schumann was Jr., was the proper the guests were Mr. and Miss and Mrs. Charles Behrens, Charles D. A. Harris Curk, W. T. Dingelstedt, Mr., and A. Degerdon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Deihl, J. Dehr-in, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Guenther, Mr.

BATONNE.

To friends from the metropolis and Brooklyn Mrs. Edward T. French gave an afternoon tea at her home, in Avenue C, last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Hammond, of Binghamton, N. Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank has returned from an extended sojourn with relatives at Albany, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs Thomas W. Atkinson, of Wilmington, Del., have ended a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick N. Wright.

Miss Lillian Stratton has succeeded Miss Mary

Lawton as the alto in the choir of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, of Jersey City.

Cards have been issued for the marriage of Miss Minnie Alice Lindsay, the eldest daughter of William Lindsay, of West Tenth-st, to Charles Schroeder, a prosperous young business man of Jersey City. The ceremony is set for Wednesday, June 12.

Miss Jane Conger Davis, daughter of Charles M.

June 12.

Miss Jane Conger Davis, daughter of Charles M. Davis, City Superintendent of Schools, was graduated on Tuesday from the New-York Medical College and Hospital for Women.

Misses Natalie and Katheryn Stephenson, of Philadelphia, are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Somers.

Miss Hannah Booth, of West Sixth-st., the cidest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Booth, is home from an outing with friends at Wilkesbarre.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke W. Richard, of Avenue E. are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Edward Missenius, of Boston, and her children.

Miss Mary Packard, of West Eighth-st. and Avenue A. cidest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah S. Packard, has returned from a visit to friends at Baltimore.

Another of the Bayonne Rowing and Athletic Association's series of monthly receptions and dances was given on Wednesday evening in the clubhouse. At the last meeting of the association thirty applicants were elected to membership.

Dr. Louis E. Deary, the popular house physician at the Bayonne Hospital and Dispensary, has resigned, and will practise his profession in the metropolis. He will be succeeded by Dr. Archbald C. Forman, of this city, who was graduated hast week from the Medical Department of the University of the City of New-York.

The final formal reception and dance for the season of the Newark Bay Boat Club will be given in the clubhouse on Wednesday evening, May 29. The boathouse, at West Thirty-third-st., on the Mewark Bay shore, was opened on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Comp., of Willow Place, received the Mayark Bay shore, was opened on the state of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Comn. of Willow Place, received the members of the Fortnightly Euchre Club on Wednesday evening.

The Bayonne Rowing and Athletic Association's wheelmen will have a road run to Dunellen, Union County, on Sunday.

Local music lovers thronged the First Reformed Church, in Avenue C, on Thursday evening, at the seventh concert of the Bayonne Musical Society. The Dudley Buck Quartet assisted the large chorus.

RAHWAY. The Barber Asphalt Company, of Newark, has finished paving Cherry-st.

The Rahway Savings Institution began on Wednesday payment of a final dividend of 5 per tent on "old account" to depositors. The Rahway Reform Club celebrated its eleventh universary in the Temperance Auditorium Sunday.

If is understood that the Law Enforcement League has abandoned its crusade and will not make any more efforts to obtain the conviction of those liquor dealers who are charged with violating the Sunday

W. The Rev. G. H. Payson, of the First Presbyterian hurch, and J. G. Withron, of Broad-st., were del-ates to the General Assembly at Pittsburg this

The contract for constructing the rival telephone ne of the Rahway Mutual Telephone Company will a awarded next week.

RUTHERFORD

A man lying ill in Paterson is all that prevented Company L. 2d Regiment, from getting 100 per cert at the annual inspection on Wednesday night, the Patersonian being the only member of the company Patersonian being the only member of the company absent. Badges for performing 100 per cent of duty for a year were presented to Sergeant John Mansfield, Corporal Otto Kellerman and Private Aidison Ely, ir., by Captain Addison Ely, in behalf of the sergeants of the company. Among those who witnessed the inspection were Adjutant John T. Hilton, of Paterson; Captain John Engel, of Hackenseck, and Captain Hamilton M. Ross, jr., of Passaic. Company L. now has its full comprement of nemers, and there are a dozen on the waiting list.

A reception was given on Thursday hight for the Rev. Henry M. Ladd, the new rector of Grace Church, at the home of Robert Smillie, the affair avily loaded four-horse truck belonging to vania Railroad at a private crossing in River-st.

NEWARK.

a musical entertainment for the benefit of the Dalsy Fields Home next Friday even-ing. May 24, at the Lyceum. The patron-esses will be Mrs. Herbert B. Turner, Mrs. Samuel A. Duncan, Mrs. H. M. Banks, Mrs. W. O. Terry, Mrs. Richard E. Cochran, Mrs. C. W. Valen-tine, Miss Frances Lyman, Mrs. J. Hugh Peters, Mrs. Donald Mackay, Mrs. William S. Doughty, Mrs. E. A. Brinckerhoff, Mrs. Delos Bliss, Mrs. B. F. Pond and Miss Katherine S. Sawtelle. The chief support of the Dalay Fields Home for Crippled Children has always come from Englewood people, support of the Dalsy Fields Home for Crippled Children has always come from Englewood people, and although several well-known New-York women are actively interested in the work, it is the generous givers and the sympathetic people of Englewood who respond most quickly to the calls for these poor children, and who give most liberal backing to the plans for helping them.

On Thursday, June 6, an outdoor fête for the benefit of the building fund of the Women's Exchange will be held. Admission tickets will be it, and each comer is supposed to bring one or two packages worth $1$ each. Then there will be a distribution at the closing of the entertainment, when each holder of a ticket will be entitled to a package worth $1$. This seems like a preity even exchange, but the entertainers expect the results to help materially in sweeping away the $250 which is still owing on the plot of land owned by the Exchange. John Fiske gave a lecture last night in the library of the Lyceum on "The Cosmic Roots of Love and Self-Sacrifice." He will lecture again this evening in the same place on "The Eternal Reality of Religion."

The Field Club will give a handleap tennis tournament, open to all members of the club, next Thursday, Friday and Saurday afternoon. The contests will be in men's singles, men's doubles, women's doubles and mixed doubles. First and second prizes will be given in the singles; only first prizes in the doubles and mixed doubles. The Field Club nine will play the Jersey Clty Field Club team this afternoon at Englewood, and after the game tea will be served at the clubhouse. This innovation has proved so popular that ten will be served every Saturday afternoon in the pretty rooms of the club building. Next Thursday afternoon, from 4 to 7 o'clock, Mrs. Henry Ward Banks will give a reception at Hillholme in Fallsade-ave, for her daughter, Mrs. George McConnel, of Fusishaw Park, Wilmslow, England. Mrs. James Mortimer Montgomery, of Englewood, will receive with Mrs. Banks. Mrs. Me-Connel, who was married in October, o England to live, is at present here on a visit with her family.

F. H. Hoffman, cashier of the Citizens' National sank of Englewood, who was seriously ill with neumonia last winter and who has not yet recovered his strength fully, has, upon the advice of his hystician, resigned his piace as cashier of the bank. The directors have accepted his resignation, making generous provision for Mr. Hoffman for some nonths to come, in view of his faithful tervices to he bank. Charles F. Park will succeed him as ashier.

the bank. Charles F. Park will succeed him as cashier.

The Rev. James Eells, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, is away from home at the Presbyterian General Assembly in Pittsburg. In his absence Dr. Vincent will fill his pulpit.

There is no longer any doubt that the borough of Englewood Cliffs is to be a material fact, for the election last week resulted in the ratification of the proposition to establish the borough. Engewood people accept this decision with equanimity, for, of course, it does not mean at all that they are to be deprived of the delights which they have always enjoyed and the giories of the Palisades.

MILLBURN. In accordance with a law adopted at the last session of the Legislature authorizing the governing bodies in cities and towns to appropriate a sum not ppropriated 125 to be given as a second of the control of the cont

principles of temperance at the contest held in Bonnel's Hall.
Walter Warner, of Short Hills-ave., Springfield, started on Tuesday for Lenox, Mass.
The Wyoming Literary Society closes the season on Tuesday, when it will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Pierson.

WEST HOBOKEN.

The annual ball of the Foresters of New-Jersey held at Frech's Casino, West Hoboken, on Tues day night, was a fine affair. Among those presen

IN THE ORANGES.

MANY MATTERS OF INTEREST IN THE

THE WEST ORANGE WATER QUESTION-ANNI-

in Wednesday. A manufacture to be present.

Mrs. Frederick W. Kelsey, of Centre-at, gove a Mrs. Frederick was ther home on Wednesday, at Mrs. Frederick W. Keisey, of Centrest, gave charming luncheon at her home on Wednesday, at which covers were laid for thirty.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brewster, of Walnutst, East Orange, gave a large proceeding at their home yesterday evening, at which there were their nome yearran some artistic prizes one artistic prizes.

St. Paul's Guild, of East Orange, held a "Hiossom Tea." on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. S. K. Daveon, in Prospect-st. There were a number of novel features, and the affair was a great number of novel leatures, and success.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Winklin, of East.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Winklin, of their

Orange, were guests at a reception given on their return from their wedding trip by Edward Allen, the father of Mrs. Van Winklin, on Tuesday even-ing. About 150 guests were present.

The Nutley Field Club has arranged the following tennis games for next month: With the East Orange Athletic Club, at Nutley, June 1; Rutherford Tennis Club, at Rutherford, June 8; East Orange Athletic Club, at Rubertora, some S. Date Orange Atheric Club, at Orange, June 15. The Society for Providing Homes for Homeless Children is growing in popular favor, over seventy-five names having been added to the lists. Among the members are many persons prominent in caurch reles. A real estate syndicate is looking for property in Mrs. W. I. Sherman is dangerously in at her home in Williams. The Franklin fluiding and Loan Association held a meeting on Wednesday night at the Park Hall, Franklin. A number of shares were redeemed and considerable routine business transacted. The home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Probose, in Chestaut.st. was the scane of a large gathering of people Wednesday night, the occasion being a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Gotlieb Darm, of River Read.

Road.
Mrs. Helen Denslaw, of Hartford, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William H. Whitford, of Grant-ave., has returned home.
Mrs. Joseph Lindabury, of Jersey City, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins, of Passaicave.
Ground will be broken on the Passaic and Newark Electric Railway line May 26.

CALDWELL

The Sunday-school of the Caldwell Baptist Church The Sunday-sensor of the Chicken Daptist Church has elected these officers: Superintendent, William H. Van Wert; agaistant John Welton; secretary and treasurer, James Smith; librarians, Homer Daldwin and Daniel De Camp; organist, Ella Ja-

The new Dominican Convent is expected to be ready for dedication in June.

Grand Army veterans are arranging to hold a celebration on Decoration Day, with a street pande, in which children will take part. W. W. Pasko, formerly of Company L. 16th New-York Heavy Artillery, will deliver an address after the return from the cemetery.

The Newark Presbyterians held a meeting on Thursday, in Caldwell, to ordain and install the Rev. H. K. Denlinger pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

terian Church.

The Rev. H. H. Parry and his family are visiting in Brooklyn.

The Pen and Point Circle will meet once in two weeks until July. On Thursday evening "Norway and Sweden" was the subject for consideration.

VERONA.

A dramatic club has been organized in Verona It will give a play soon in Johnson's Hall.
Only two boys of the Newark City Home con cong two boys of the Newark City none con-fracted diphtheria from a new inmate who de-veloped a mild case three days after his admission. Antitoxin was used, and the boys were isolated. The drama given recently in Cedar Grove Hall netted $37 for the Mountainside Hospital.

IRVINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron L. Clift have returned from their wedding-trip to Vermont.

A party was given on Tuesday night to Miss Louise Porter, at the home of her parents, in Centre-st. Music and games were enjoyed and supper was served. Among the guests were Miss Hattie Wood, Miss May Brown, Miss Emily Russell, Miss Ena Adams, Miss Emily Russell, Miss Ena Adams, Miss Willa Adams, Miss Florence Baur, Miss Ray Howlett, Miss Jennie Porter, Miss Estella Winter, Miss Gertle Cover, Miss Phebe Ducker, Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hattie Porter and Miss Minnie Porter.

Members of Henry Clay Council, No. 95, Junior Members of Henry Clay Council, No. 95, Junior O. U. A. M., were the guests of Irvington Council, The wires and poles of the Cranford Boating Association met on Wednesday nisht to make arrangements for the river carnival this year.

At the last meeting of the Cranford Township Committee the franchise granted to the Cranford Mutual Telephone Company was reconsidered on account of complaints about the way the company Miss May Doty, of Cranford, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edwin King, at Irvington, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Myron L. Clift have returned from nce. No. 167, on Wednesday night. Henry Clay Council un. presented a handsome Bible to Irvington Council.

ELIZABETH.

FIGURING ON IMPROVEMENTS IN RESI-DENTIAL STREETS.

feet of trap block on each side of the street estimated cost of the improvement is $16,000

The portraits and illustrated songs which were were grouped before a camp fire, was heartily received.

An interesting talk was given by Mrs. E. H. Whittemore, of New-York, founder of the Door of Hope, in the Congregational Chapel on Tuesday afternoon, especially addressed to women.

The T. I. A held its regular monthly meeting in the assembly-room of the High School yesterday, the speaker being W. F. Morse, and the subject the scientific disposal of garbage. Special invitations were sent to the Town Council, Health Board and the North End T. I. A, that any new ideas might be retained for the benefit of the town.

The Home Mission connected with the Altruist Society will begin active operations on Tuesday afternoon, May Zi, on the grounds of the First Presbyterian Church. For several summers the mission has sent weekly large hampers of flowers to the city, to be distributed where they are most needed.

The Montriair Gas and Water Company on Tues-to the city, to be distributed where they are most needed.

The Montclair Gas and Water Company on Tuesday evening elected the following officers: President, Dr J J. H. Love, Vice-president, M. M. Dodd, secretary and treasurer, William H. Baldwin; superintendent, John Causbrook, directors, Dr. J. J. H. Love, Eugene Vandersool, H. M. Dodd, Matthias Plum, Andrus H. Howe, Stephen W. Carey and William H. Baldwin.

Invitations will soon be out for a large dance to be given in the symnasium of the M. M. A. on June 13.

Invitations will soon be out for a large dance to be given in the symmasium of the M. M. A. on June II.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Laura Ward, daughter of Munson Ward, of Verona, and Leonard Luniap, of Montclair.

Miss May E. Burt, author of "Literary Sandwiches," will give a lecture next Friday afternoon, under the auspices of the S. I. A. A jolly pound social was given by Kaskaskia Tribe, No. 188, I. O. R. M., on Monday evening a large number of members and their friends being present. Each guest left a parcel on a table, and they were auctioned off by "Billy" Williams, whose comic remarks caused a rapid sale of all the bundles. After the auction dancing was continued until midnight.

Much sorrow has been expressed at the sudden deaths of David and Martin Gordon, the three and two year old sons of Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon, of Glen Ridge-ave. The children were taken ill with diphtheria on Friday, and on Monday they died. All the other children are well.

The Montclair Athletic Chib will make an effort to have special athletic claim will make an effort to have special athletic games and tennis tournaments throughout the summer. The recently laid quarter-mile track will bring forward running, which has heretofore been neglected for lack of proper facilities.

Malcolm Smith has been appointed by the Tawn Council to succeed himself as inspector of jurors.

ARLINGTON.

The Women's Literary Society held a reading Fuesday afternoon at the Arlington clubhouse. In St. Cecelia's Church Tuesday night a reception was given by the Children of Mary Society for the benefit of the church.

The Juvenile Singing Society gave its closing rehearsal on Wednesday at the Knox Presbyterian ton, and Miss Anna Schifstrom, of Brooklyn, is announced.

Mrs. Margaret T. Yardiev, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Tuesday night addressed the Arlington Literary Club.

The Wingfield Club, of Arlington, held its monthly meeting on Tuesday night at the home of Miss May Wood.

The Women's Literary Society will hold a Shaken-pearian reception at the Arlington Clubhouse on June 3.

St. Agnes's Guild of Trinity held a "poverty sociable" at the residence of Miss Sands, on Chestnut-st., on Thursday night.

The Executive Committee of the Cranford Boat-

PLAINFIELD.

COME.

WHIST CHAMPIONS-AFTERNOON TEAS-REAL ES- REPORT FROM THE 2D REGIMENT FAIR-LOCAL TATE CHANGES-SOCIAL AND PER-

The Washington Park Whist Club on Wedne night won another championship in the New-Jer-sey Whist League tournament, when its four mea

County, N. Y., has been visiting relatives in Plain-field during his attendance at the decennial reunion

Mrs. Howard Rumyon and Mrs. Printp Metalyfe, a sisted by Miss Grace Yerkes, Miss Arline Crane, Miss Mary Fritts, Miss Jennie Haviland, Miss Maude French, of Plainfield; Miss Negus, of Bound Brook, and Miss Bertha Thompson, of Somerville. An important purchase of real estate has been made by H. G. Rumkle, who has bought the White Building, at Front-st, and Pagk-ave. It is under-stood that he will remodel the building, and that

Dr. Helen Cooley, of North Plainfield, has rereived the highest prize for her standing in the graduating class at the thirty-second annual commencement of the New-York Medical College and Hospital for Women. Her average mark was the lighest ever attained by a scholar in this college.
Mrs. William G. Wright, of No. 516 West Eightht, gave an afternoon tea yeaterday, which was ittended by a large number of local society people.
Hishop Scarborough will be present in this city
o-morrow, being entertained by J. W. Reinhart, n Netherwood. He will visit Grace Church toportow.

The Mizpah Brotherhood of the Park Methodist Church has elected these officers: President, Dr. W. H. Van Gleson; vice-president, James Crisp;

The fair of the Bloomfield Cycling and Athletic Association netted $500.

Easex Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, of Bloomfield, has anominated for president, Seymour P. Gilbert, vice-president, J. Howard Hardcastle; secretary, J. Milton Unangst; treasurer, Charles H. Johnson; chapain, the Rev. Robert M. Aylesworth, of the Park Methodist Episcopai Church.

The Owl Howling Club, of Bloomfield, has arranged for its annual outing to take place June 8.

At the meeting of the Bloomfield Board of Health held on Wednesday night, Dr. Charles H. Balley stated that the township had no provisions for fecording diseases, births, deaths and marriages. The legal committee was requested to prepare an ordinance covering these cases.

The Rev. Dr. Mancius H. Hutton, of the Second Reformed Church, attended the 112th anniversary of the New-York State branch of the Society of the Cincinnati last Monday afternoon at Delmonico's.

Cincinnati last Monday afternoon at Delmonico's.
Dr. Hutton has been chaplain of the branch for several years. He was appointed on the committee to nominate officers.

The annual meeting of the National Water Tube Boiler Company was held on Wednesday afternoon. Directors elected were James Deshler, Joseph Fisher and Edward Tindell, of New-Brunswick, John C. Evans. of Milltown, and Warren A. Green, of Lambertville. The directors organized later with the following officers: President, James Deshler; secretary, Joseph Fisher; treasurer, John C. Evans.

At the monthly meeting of the New-Brunswick Boat Club trustees, held on Tuesday evening, a proposition to increase the annual dues from 35 to 350 was defeated. One of the two new six-oared gigs recently purchased by the club has arrived. The annual meeting will be held on May 28.

oared gigs recently purchased by the club has arrived. The annual meeting will be held on May 28.

The cigarmakers of the city are up in arms against the recent order of Mayor Williamson that all business places be closed on Sundays. The cigarmakers say that the order is unfaif, because drugstores, which are exempted, continue to sell cigars and tobacco.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of New-Brunswick has decided to disband after the services to-morrow morning. The church was founded about a year ago by the late Rev. Dr. John Miller, of Princeton, who occupied the pulpit till his death last month. Since then the membership has rapidly declined. The church building was the personal property of Dr. Miller, and will probably be sold in the settlement of his estate.

A heavy frost covered the ground around Spotswood, Old Bridge and other parts of Middleaex County yesterlay monting, entailing a loss of thousands of dollars. It is said to be the heaviest early sommer frost in fifteen years, the ground having the appearance of a fall of show. Ice formed to the thickness of one-cighth of an inch wherever water was left standing.

At a special meeting of the Board of Education on Tuesday evening Miss Place, of New-York City, was appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Church.

were appointed members of the police force on Tocslay evening by the Township Committee.

Francis S. Parauer and George H. Hodenpyl, of Hodenpyl & Sons, New-York, have been appointed by Sheriff George T. Kyte to represent Summit on the Grand Jury.

A ministrel show, to be followed by a dance, will be given by the members of the Short Hills Fire Department next Tuesday evening at Music Hall, Hotel Beechwood.

A "book sociable" for the berefit of the Summit Library was given at the Hotel Beechwood last evening.

Library was given at the Hotel Beechwood last evening.

The Township Committee is cutting down and grading Springfield-ave, from Maple-st, to the entrance to the park.

The members of Hose Company No. 1 have purchased new uniforms.

The members of the Young Men's Christian Association have organized a bicycle club, with some sixty members, and elected the following officers: Captain, Arthur A. Ahen; lieutenant, Ernest Asmus; secretary and treasurer, Harry Card.

A fair for the benefit of the Summit Fresh Ar and Convalescent Home will be given under the management of the Board of Directors early in Jame.

June.

The Commonwealth Water Company has placed ten additional fire hydrants at different points in the township.

The Board of Trade is to begin holding annual dinners, where eloquence will flow and the su-periority of Passaic as a place of residence will be fully set forth. Messrs. Kimball, Clark and Granger have been appointed to arrange for the first dinner have been appointed to arrange for the first dinner.

The announcement of the marriage of Anton L.

Pettersen and Miss Mary McLaughlin was received with great surprise among a large circle of friends. They have been married nearly a year, but the fact was not known even to Mrs. Pettersen's family until this week. Mr. Pettersen is one of the assistants of City Surveyor Wise.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reid arrived home on Tuesday from their trip to the Mediterranean.

The Young Men's Christian Association has abandoned its project of erecting a large building to

ELIZABETH

PATERSON.

PLAINFIELD

PATERSON

INCIDENTS OF INTEREST PAST AND TO CITY FATHERS STRUGGLING WITH PUZZLING PROBLEM.

diate constituents as was granted by last year's tax ordinance, and if this is done the urgently need-

KEARNY. Mr. Louden, at the meeting of the Kearny Township Committee on Tuesday night, said that the re-sult of testing the water from the Baylis and Schueler wells during the last two weeks had Schueler wells during the last two weeks had been successful, and he thought the problem of a pure water supply at last solved. Mr. Louden's resolution appointing Professor Chandler, of New-York, to analyze samples of the water taken from the wells was adopted.

The Mile End Cricket Club organized on Tuesday night with the following officers: President, Samuel Worthington: vice-presidents, Frank Palordy, J. Howarth, and T. Parkington; scretary, Samuel Ward; treasurer, Andrew Wynill; captain, R. Colderbank; vice-captain, Nicholas Veal.

The Juvenile Singing Society of Kearny gave a concert in the chapel of the Knox Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night.

William Bynner, of New-Lawn-ave., has returned from a trip through the West.

The women of the First Methodist Episcopal Church gave an "alphabetical tea" at the church parlor on Weinesday evening. The tea was managed by Mrs. George Dorsett, Mrs. Gamo, Mrs. J. C. Farr, jr.; Mrs. Heims, Mrs. Whittaker, Miss Ida Field, the Misses Fenton and the Misses Dorsett. There were readings and music by Mrs. Jordan, Master Jordan, Mrs. Agnes Rudolph, Kate Norwood, Julia Mager and Elia Currie.

The many rumors that have been flying about Hoboken during the last week in relation to the gift of $25,000 in aid of a free library building has impelled Richard Stevens to make a statement that the Stevens family, in making the gift, imposed no conditions whatever. They merely ask that provision be made in the building for the Industrial School. Mr. Stevens says that the basement of the building will serve all the purposes of the school, leaving the entire upper part of the building for the library. He surgests, however, that the main and second floors would be ample space for the library and reading-room, and that the upper floor could be used as a half or public lectures connected with the library and Industrial School. These surgestions will probably be carried out.

The Stevens Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs, of Stevens Institute, gave a concert at Quartet Club Hall on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the lacrosse team. Those who assisted with yould muste were Miss Mabel Wiggins and Miss Reid and Messes. Franklyn Hart and C. Swan. The audience was large and fashionable.

Miss Millie Jordan and Henry Blumenberg were married last Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, No. 86 Grand-st., by the Rev. Mr. Toble, of New-York. Max Jordan, the bride's brother, was best man, and Miss E. Hertzberg was bridesmaid. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. May Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Gayfer, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Gayfer, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Gayfer, Mr. and Mrs. And Mrs. Capagar, Mr. and Mrs. Gayfer, Mr. and Mrs. And Mrs. Lopetz and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lopetz and Mr. and Mrs. William Disch.

WESTFIELD. and Ella Currie. The many rumors that have been flying about

N. B. Gardiner, of the Westfield Township Com-N. B. Gardiner, of the Westfield Township Committee, has been appointed to report on the perition of the residents of Downer-st. to have that theroughfare macadamized.

The Social Club held its closing entertainment and dauce on Tuesday night.

Company C. Phil Kearny Guard, 3d Regiment, attended service in full uniform last Sunday, in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The company came up from Elizabeth in stages.

Telephone Rates

in Brooklyn. Jersey City, Hoboken and New ark, $40, $50 and $65 per year, according to number of messages sent and character of service. Full long-distance equipment. Private lines and speaking tube systems installed at reasonable rates. Write New York and New Jersey Telephone Co., 16 Smith St.,